

Coffee

with

Paul Daugherty

*Paul Daugherty talked to four people about Sam Wyche, and all four conversations included big laughter. Maybe that's how Sam should be remembered.
Via @EnquirerDoc*

*Doc's Morning Line:
What if the Cincinnati Bengals don't take Joe Burrow in the NFL*

Tuesday, February 18, 2020

7:30am

Little Sisters of the Poor
476 Riddle Rd
Cincinnati, OH 45220

Sports columnist for The Cincinnati Enquirer for 25 years, Paul has covered nearly every major American sporting event, and five Summer Olympics.

Paul was named the best sportswriter in Ohio by the National Sports Media Association. This is the second time Daugherty, who started at the Enquirer in 1994, has been named sportswriter of the year by the NSMA.

RSVP

By Friday, February 16th

Karen Amend (513)281-8001 or devcincinnati@littlesistersofthepoor.org

No admission fee. Donations welcome.
Please invite your friends!

7:30am Coffee and Donuts
8:00am Paul Talks Sports and More
8:30am Q&A
8:45am Book Signing
Living an Uncomplicated Life, $15

